ANGELLA NAZARIAN

Angella Nazarian is a noted speaker and best-selling author of “Pioneers of the Possible: Celebrating Visionary Women of the World” and “Life is a Visitor.” Angella is the co-founder of Women A.R.E., a women’s leadership organization founded to empower women through forums that inspire, engage, and promote collaboration.

Angella is also the co-founder of Looking Beyond, a charitable organization that promotes awareness and creates advancement and enrichment for children with special needs. Additionally, she serves on the Board of the Y&S Nazarian Family Foundation and is involved in a host of local charities.

A former professor of psychology, Angella continues an active role in education, serving as a trustee at Brentwood School and on the Parent Advisory Board at Stanford University. She is a regular contributor to Huffington Post, Positively Positive, Maria Shriver’s “Open Field Network,” and More.com.

In her newest book “Pioneers of the Possible,” Angella honors the world’s most inspiring women of the past century through today. This beautiful collection shines a light on their collective fearless spirit and encourages today’s women toward greater, deeper lives.

There will be an opportunity to purchase Angella’s book at the conclusion of the Tea, and she has graciously agreed to a book signing for our guests. Please join us for a wonderful afternoon with Angella.

Founded in 1975, The Help Group is the largest, most innovative and comprehensive nonprofit of its kind in the United States serving children with special needs related to autism spectrum disorders, learning disabilities, ADHD, developmental delays, abuse and emotional problems.

The Help Group's nine specialized day schools offer pre-K through high school programs for more than 1,500 students. Its broad range of mental health and therapy services, child abuse and residential programs extends its reach to more than 6,000 children and their families each year. With more than 950 staff members, The Help Group's state-of-the-art schools and programs are located on seven campuses in the Los Angeles area.

The Help Group is widely regarded for its high standards of excellence, unique scope and breadth of services. Through its public awareness, professional training and parent education programs and efforts at the state and national levels, The Help Group touches the lives of children with special needs across the country and in other parts of the world.

At the heart of its efforts is the commitment to helping young people fulfill their potential to lead positive, productive and rewarding lives.
