

THE HELP GROUP CENTER FOR AUTISM SPECTRUM DISORDERS

ASSESSMENT PROGRAM:

The Help Group Center for Autism Spectrum Disorders offers diagnostic, developmental, educational, and *neuropsychological assessments for children, adolescents and young adults suspected of having an autism spectrum disorders. The Center provides consultation for families with children as young as 12 months of age who may be displaying early warning signs of autism.

* Offered in collaboration with The Help Group – UCLA Neuropsychology Program

THE CENTER ALSO OFFERS:

- After School Social Skill Training
- Summer Camp Programs
- Individual Counseling
- Parent Support and Education
- Graduate and Post Graduate Professional Training
- Research Programs
- Professional Seminars

For more information regarding the services provided or to receive our information packet or to schedule an appointment, please contact Laurie Stephens, Ph.D., Director
(818) 779-5262 or (818) 779-5207 or email lstephens@thehelpgroup.org