

The Help Group DISTINGUISHED LECTURER SERIES

Featuring
TRACY WEBB

Presenting
How to Protect Our Kids in the Cyber World
Strategies for Parents & Professionals

Tracy Webb is a Senior Trial Attorney in charge of the Cyber Crime and Child Abuse Prosecution Division of the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office. She is a career prosecutor who has spent the majority of her career prosecuting child abuse cases including physical, sexual, exploitation and technologically facilitated crimes against children.

Tracy is currently an active member of the Federal Internet Crimes against Children (ICAC) Task Force and co-chair of the Los Angeles County Cyber Crime Task Force. She is a frequent speaker locally and nationally in the area of cyber crime and child abuse and exploitation. Tracy is also an Emmy-award winning producer of a documentary film on gang violence. She has produced numerous films and Public Service Announcements on child abuse and cyber crime that are currently airing on various television stations. She recently completed a documentary short on the state of child welfare in Los Angeles County and is currently in production for a film on Human Trafficking in Southern California.

Prior to working for the City of Los Angeles, Tracy was the Chief Prosecutor for the City of Pasadena for eight years. In this capacity, Tracy was responsible for supervising a staff of attorneys and support staff who handled the criminal offenses within the city limits of Pasadena as well as running a gang and code enforcement task force and handling a wide variety of criminal prosecutions including child abuse and gang violence cases.

For the past 29 years, Tracy has dedicated her career to prosecuting criminals, supporting children and families and participating in community efforts to further the support and safety of children, youth and families.

The Help Group because every child deserves a great future

Group

Founded in 1975, The Help Group is the largest, most innovative and comprehensive nonprofit of its kind in the United States serving children with special needs related to autism spectrum disorders, learning disabilities, ADHD, developmental delays, abuse and emotional problems.

The Help Group's nine specialized day schools offer pre-K through high school programs for more than 1,450 students. Its broad range of mental health and therapy services, child abuse and residential programs extends its reach to more than 6,000 children and their families each year. With more than 950 staff members, The Help Group's state-of-the-art schools and programs are located on seven campuses in the Los Angeles area.

The Help Group is widely regarded for its high standards of excellence, unique scope and breadth of services. Through its public awareness, professional training and parent education programs and efforts at the state and national levels, The Help Group touches the lives of children with special needs across the country and in other parts of the world.

At the heart of its efforts is the commitment to helping young people fulfill their potential to lead positive, productive and rewarding lives.
